

PARIS

The world's most romantic city still seduces. Before you die, you've got to live "la vie en rose". Paris is, simply put, a gay paradise. Luxury shopping, fine art, romantic landmarks, cheap (yet good) wine, heavenly cheese, fashion-forward nightlife, beautiful people; it is all in one "little" metropolitan city called Paris.

The artsy and cool "Marais" is Paris' most obvious gay area, spanning blocks across the 3rd and 4th arrondissements on the Right Bank. But the entire city is ready to romance gay travelers.

Gay & Lesbian Restaurants

Chez Stéf

A Lyonese established in the Capital, but not a common one because in Lyon everybody does know Stephan, and his Broc Bar, one of the best bars of this city. A creation thus Parisian, between the Champs-Élysées and the Faubourg St Honore, hides this small jewel of restaurant: CHEZ STEF. Here you will find a unique bar, in an crimson and cordial ambiance, where are offered home-made dishes, a very beautiful wine selection, and greedy desserts. Stephan and his team will welcome you, and you will come back. That's for sure...
