

THE PENINSULA

B A N G K O K

OUT AND ABOUT IN BANGKOK

The Peninsula Bangkok invites guests to experience fun activities, marvellous restaurants and bars while staying in the charming city of angels.

Asiatique The Riverfront: Experience Bangkok's first large-scale riverside community mall, which combines shopping, dining, sightseeing, activities and events under one roof. There are more than 40 restaurants and 1,500 boutiques selling souvenirs, fashionable cloths, textiles, accessories and home décor items. There is also the extravaganza of cabaret performers from Calypso Bangkok and the life-like movements of Thai puppets featured at the Joe Louis Puppet Theatre. The Peninsula Bangkok provides roundtrip river boat service to Asiatique for its guests every Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Siam Paragon: As a world-class shopping destination, Siam Paragon is located in the heart of the city complete with over 250 shops from leading Thai and international brands, covering the needs of customers and visitors. Experience world-class entertainment at an international exhibition at Royal Paragon Hall or watch a movie at the cinema. The place also houses Siam Ocean World, the first aquarium in the centre of the city.

Central Embassy: An ultra-luxury lifestyle mall, boasting an impressive collection of high-end designer stores, fine-dining restaurants and swanky cinema screens. This huge shopping centre stands out from the rest of the gauntlet of megamalls with its futuristic design as well as impressive, minimalist white interiors, allowing all the big-name stores to stand out.

Museum of Contemporary Art: This is the place where a long yet interesting history of Thai art is recorded, and a perfect combination between traditional Thai art and internationally known academic art is demonstrated. Contemporary artworks by Thai artists from different generations are exhibited here with the goal of introducing the uniqueness of Thai art to the world.

Silom Soi 4: This is Bangkok's answer to London's Soho or New York's Chelsea. The small street is packed with gay bars, clubs and male sauna and is considered as Bangkok's pinkest street, which attracts mostly gay crowd.

Maggie Choo's: Maggie Choo's is the latest nightlife entertainment venue to hit Silom Road. Enjoy Cantonese food and live music every night in a vintage Chinese setting for a different and memorable experience.

Ku De Ta: It is situated in the heart of Sathorn at the pinnacle of the iconic Sathorn Square on the 39th and 40th floors. In addition to the absolute knockout views, the place also has seven themed bars, two nightclubs and three restaurants. Those who love to dance will want to head immediately to the Ku De Ta Cloud Lounge, where different nights feature everything from R&B, pop to house music, depending on the occasion.

Cloud 47: Perched 47 floors above Silom and enjoying fabulous 180-degree city views, Cloud 47 is a rooftop bar and bistro without any pretensions. Cargo shorts and flip-flops are right at home in this casual, easy-going venue spanning half of the entire top floor of the United Center.

661 Silom: Here is the marriage of two unique concepts: a gastro bar and Dom Pérignon lounge named MEET and a leather-clad New York-style premium steakhouse with labelled MEAT. The two-storey European-inspired 661 Silom project presides over the Baan Silom courtyard.

Levels Club: Situated in the heart of Bangkok in the Sukhumvit area, Levels Club & Lounge hosts world-class nightlife in an amazing audio-visual environment.

