O'ahu also known as “the gathering place,” the third largest in size among its fellow islands in the Hawaiian chain, but it is first in population. Over 950,000 people share Oahu's 600 square miles of mountains and beaches – and most populous of the islands in the State of Hawai'i. Almost half inhabit the bustling city of Honolulu and nearby resort town of Waikiki. Oahu is also the most visited of all the Hawaiian Islands, at approximately 4.5 to 4.7 million visitors annually. From trendy hotels, to the best gay beach in Hawaii, and plenty of nightlife and dining in Honolulu, Oahu is one of the top gay destinations and perfect for LGBT travel!
