

HYATT
PLACE™

Hyatt Place Tucson Airport
6885 S. Tucson Blvd.
Tucson, Arizona 85756
Telephone: 520-295-0405
Fax: 520-295-9140

HYATT
PLACE™

OUT & ABOUT TRAVEL INFORMATION

Tucson Arizona

I. Restaurants and BARS

Coyote Moon Pub:

915 W. Prince Road
Tucson, Arizona 85705
Telephone: 520-293-7339

Brodie's Tavern:

2449 N. Stone Avenue
Tucson, Arizona 85705
Telephone: 520-622-0447

El Charro Café/BariToma/La Tiendita Restaurant:

Features fine Tucson-style Mexican food in the historic El Presidio location. Rated "Top 50 Plates in America" by USA Today and seen on the Food Network.
311 N. Court Avenues
Telephone: 520-622-1922

Elle, Wine Bistro:

Eclectic- featuring fresh, contemporary fare, such as butternut squash ravioli, fried brie, and roast organic Amish half chicken, with inspired wine and spirit offerings in an intimate, casual atmosphere. A hip and trendy, yet comfortable, dining room with an open kitchen and patio setting.
2970 N. Campbell Avenue. Tucson, Arizona
Telephone: 520-327-0500

World ● ● ● ● ● ● ● ● rainbow
Hotels

II. Arts and Crafts/ Shopping

Old Town Artisans:

186 N. Meyer Avenue
Tucson, Arizona 5701
Telephone: 520-623-6024

Tucson Gem and Mineral Show January 28- February 12

The “world’s largest event of its kind” has museum-quality exhibits and vendors of gems, minerals, fossils, meteorites, beads, art, jewelry, and supplies at nearly 40 locations.

Visit www.tucson.org

III. Fourth Avenue Shopping and Restaurants:

Tucson’s ethnic and artistic eclecticism with more than 100 merchants and a distinctive style:

Del Sol International Shops: Custom crafted furniture

Zoë Boutique: Hip upscale fashions

How Sweet It Was: potential antique or special bargain discoveries in attire, costumes, furniture and collectibles

Popsycle: specializing in pop art items such as jewelry, clothing, dishware and frames made from recycled materials and refurbished goods.

Chocolate Iguana: Coffee shop, salads, sandwiches. 150 types of candy and pastries made on site. Telephone: 520-798-1211

Delectables Restaurant and Catering: casual, gourmet dining featuring crepes, enchiladas, lasagna, manicotti, quiche, home made crème brulee. Live music Friday and Saturday. Telephone: 520-884-9289.

IV. Sight Seeing:

Desert Museum: World- renowned zoo, natural history, museum and botanical garden.

2021 N. Kinney Road
Tucson, Arizona 85743
Telephone: 520-883-2702

Tohono Chul Park: Named one of the great botanical gardens of the world by Travel + Leisure

7366 N. Paseo del Norte
Tucson, Arizona 85704
Telephone: 520-742-6455

Tucson Gem and Mineral Show January 28- February 12

The “world’s largest event of its kind” has museum-quality exhibits and vendors of gems, minerals, fossils, meteorites, beads, art, jewelry, and supplies at nearly 40 locations.

Visit www.tucson.org