

Out & About: Your Guide to LGBTQ+ Spots and Hidden Gems Near South Place Hotel

Welcome to South Place Hotel and the Vibrant Local Scene!

We're proud to be part of the World Rainbow Hotels network and delighted to share our curated guide to the best LGBTQ+ friendly spots around our neighborhood. Whether you're in the mood for a fun night out, a relaxing meal, or a cultural adventure, we've got you covered with the trendiest and most inclusive places to visit. You'll find everything from lively bars to unique restaurants and cultural happenings that our LGBTQ+ guests are sure to love.

Bars & Clubs

- The Queen of Hoxton (1.1 miles away): Located in Shoreditch, this trendy rooftop bar is a favorite among the LGBTQ+ community for its lively events, including drag nights, DJ sets, and themed parties.
 - Heaven (1.8 miles away): One of the most famous LGBTQ+ clubs in London, Heaven is located near Charing Cross and offers an unforgettable night out with its huge dance floors, themed events, and regular drag shows.
 - Comptons of Soho (1.8 miles away): Situated in Soho, this historic gay pub is a staple in London's LGBTQ+ scene. Known for its welcoming vibe, Comptons offers a classic pub experience with a diverse crowd and great atmosphere.
-

Restaurants

- The Ivy City Garden (0.3 miles away): Located in the heart of the City, The Ivy City Garden is a stylish and welcoming spot with a lush outdoor terrace. It's well-known for its inclusive vibe, classic British dishes, and beautiful setting.
- Duck & Waffle (0.5 miles away): Located on the 40th floor of 110 Bishopsgate, Duck & Waffle offers incredible views and a trendy atmosphere, popular with the LGBTQ+ community. It's open 24/7 and known for its inventive British and European-inspired dishes.

- Brat (1.2 miles away): An award-winning restaurant in Shoreditch, Brat is celebrated for its Basque-inspired dishes and rustic charm. The warm, inclusive environment makes it a popular choice for LGBTQ+ diners.
-

Cultural Events & Attractions

- Soho's LGBTQ+ Walking Tour (1.8 miles away): Soho is the heart of London's LGBTQ+ scene, and several guided walking tours explore the rich queer history of the area. These tours cover iconic landmarks, stories of activism, and the evolution of London's LGBTQ+ community over the years.
 - Tate Modern's Queer Art Exhibitions (2.1 miles away): The Tate Modern regularly features exhibitions and events focused on LGBTQ+ artists and queer representation in contemporary art. Check out their rotating exhibits and special events that highlight diverse voices in the art world.
 - Shakespeare's Globe Pride Tour (2.3 miles away): Located along the Southbank, Shakespeare's Globe offers a Pride-themed tour that explores LGBTQ+ themes in Shakespeare's works and the history of queer representation in the Elizabethan era. It's a fascinating cultural experience for history and theater lovers alike.
-

Stay Connected & Updated

Our Out & About guide is updated regularly to keep you in the loop on the latest spots and events. Don't hesitate to ask our Concierge or Front Desk team for personalized recommendations—they're here to ensure you have an amazing stay. You can also access this guide online through the World Rainbow Hotels website before your arrival.

We're excited to help you experience the best of our city and look forward to making your stay unforgettable!