

ANDAZ™

LONDON
LIVERPOOL STREET

FROM EAST END ICONS TO SOHO CLASSICS, HERE'S WHERE TO GO, GATHER AND CELEBRATE.

Step outside Andaz London Liverpool Street and into one of the most vibrant, diverse and proudly LGBTQ+ friendly corners of the city.

EAST LONDON (Walking distance – 2km)

- Dalston Superstore (Dalston)
A legendary queer bar and club blending drag, DJs and late-night energy.
- The Glory (Haggerston)
Cabaret, performance art, themed parties — unapologetically East London.
- Village 512 (Dalston)
Intimate cocktail bar and dance floor with a loyal LGBTQ+ crowd.
- Colours Hoxton
Live music, drag brunches and inclusive club nights.
- Bethnal Green Working Men's Club
Cult cabaret, queer nights and underground performance art.

SOHO (15–20 mins by Tube)

- G-A-Y Bar & Heaven
London institution for pop-fuelled nights out.
- Freedom Bar
Cocktails, cabaret and late-night dancing in the heart of Soho.
- Ku Bar
Modern, stylish and always lively.
- The Admiral Duncan
Historic LGBTQ+ pub and community landmark.

ANDAZ™

LONDON
LIVERPOOL STREET

DINE & GATHER

- Rochelle Canteen (Shoreditch)
Hidden gem dining in a former schoolyard.
- Dishoom Shoreditch
Lively, design-led and ideal for group dinners.
- Brat (Shoreditch)
Michelin-starred, relaxed and effortlessly cool.

CULTURE & COMMUNITY

- Barbican Centre
Film, theatre, art and thought-provoking programming.
- Tate Modern
World-class contemporary art on the South Bank.
- Queer Britain (King's Cross)
The UK's first national LGBTQ+ museum.
- V&A East (Opening soon, Stratford)
A new cultural landmark in East London.

CLUB NIGHTS & EVENTS

- Feel It Party
High-energy queer club nights across East London venues.
- Pxy Palace
Celebrating queer, trans and non-binary people of colour.
- Sink The Pink
Immersive, theatrical and wildly entertaining