CORINTHIA PRAGUE

Everyday life in Prague is fascinating with people hurrying by or just walking around. The endless lines of traffic, calmly flowing Vltava River and street artists, they all are a part of Prague. If you want to take a break from exploring Prague, grab something to eat or enjoy the night life, here are some gay friendly tips for cafés, gay bars and gay clubs.

What to do

SOME MORE BARS AND CLUBS:

Q-Cafe

www.q-cafe.cz

Q-Cafe is a wonderful cafe, visited by a nice mix of gay, lesbian and queer minded people. It has two floors: a smoker ground floor, and a non-smoking basement. The lower floor of the cafe can be let free of charge to individuals and NGOs who strive for LGBTQ+ emancipation. The cafe also has a small but respected library full of LGBT-themed literature. If you find a book that you are particularly interested in, you can ask the staff if it's available for home reading. The staff is also thankful to be donated titles you would like to share with others.

Piano Bar

www.piano-bar.cz/

Piano bar is an old LGBT bar in Prague. Thanks to its convenient location between Poděbrad Square and the Žižkovská Television Tower, it is easily accessible from all parts of the city. There are several board games you can use, there is an old piano you can play on, and the bar hosts a bingo night every Sunday.

CRUSING CLUBS

Drake's Club Prague

www.drakes.cz/

Drakes Club is the oldest gay and play bar for men in Prague. Staff is open-minded, informative and quite at ease to speak in English. The club is open 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. In Drakes there is plenty of private space to explore, either alone or with a friend you meet at the bar. The ground floor comprises a large bar and a cabin area where you can watch films in shared or private cabins. The basement floor has a labyrinth and some play areas with cages and chains. Lockers are available should you wish to securely save your clothes. Busy on Friday and Saturday, as there is free entrance on these days during the afternoon.

GAY SAUNAS

Sauna Labyrint

www.saunalabyrint.cz/

Labyrint is the most popular sauna in Prague. It offers 3 large floors with mazes, playrooms and tv rooms. In addition, there is a finish sauna, several steam rooms, and a steam labyrinth where you can both cruise and relax. Special parties are held on Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays.

EVENTS

Prague Pride

www.praguepride.cz/

The Prague Pride festival takes place every year in August, all the way since 2011. It is the biggest cultural event for LGBTQ+ people in the Czech Republic. The festival lasts a week and presents over 100 cultural and social activities, public discussions and debates, sports events and spiritual encounters. The culminating point of the Prague Pride week is the Saturday parade through Prague, led by the mayor of Prague.
