Where to fill your palate

	Roganic Roganic is a Michelin-starred and green-starred restaurant, which recognizes restaurants that are leaders in the field of sustainability. The restaurant offers a tasting menu of modern European dishes that are made with seasonal ingredients sourced from local farms, house-grown herbs and sustainable ingredients. Direction: 9-min walk from AKI
	Osteria Marzia Osteria Marzia has its Italian menu recently been converted to feature exclusively seafood which is complemented with fresh pasta, grilled meats, and seasonal vegetables. The spacious setting is unabashedly refined, yet relaxed at the same time, like a dinner party at a monied Italian villa. Anticipate warm, knowledgeable and attentive staff with service so immaculate that, at times, it feels invisible in the best way possible. Direction: 2-min walk from AKI
	Uncle Ming's Whisky Bar Uncle Ming's Whisky Bar is a sky-high hotspot for whisky lovers, located at 25/F of AKI Hong Kong - MGallery. With more than 80 international whiskeys, including rare single malts, Uncle Ming's is truly a magnet for lovers of the amber nectar. But everyone will adore this dramatic city view with its indulgent menu of both classic and inventive cocktails and light bites. And the views are simply breathtaking. Direction: 25/F at AKI Hong Kong -MGallery
	Blue House The Blue House is a four-storey tenement building located in Wan Chai. It is one of the few remaining examples of traditional Chinese shophouses in the city. The building was built in 1922 and is named after the blue color of its exterior walls. It is a Grade I historic structure, which denotes that it has unique architectural and historical significance. The Blue House is a popular tourist destination and is also home to a number of art galleries and cultural organizations. It is a great place to learn about the history and culture of Hong Kong.

And so the adventure begins

 A green and white Star Ferry boat is seen from a distance on the water of Victoria Harbour. The background features the dense Hong Kong skyline with various skyscrapers under a blue sky with light clouds.	Star Ferry Pier Situated at the heart of Victoria Harbour, Star Ferry Pier serves as both a bustling transportation hub and a historic landmark. It links Central on Hong Kong Island to Tsim Sha Tsui in Kowloon, offering a convenient and iconic ferry service that has been in operation for more than a hundred years. Besides its practicality, the Star Ferry Pier is also an astounding photography spot, providing breathtaking panoramic views of Hong Kong's vibrant cityscape and picturesque harbor.
 A street-level view of the Woo Cheong Pawn Shop, a traditional multi-story building with a yellow facade and white columns. A red double-decker bus is parked in front of the building, and other cars are visible on the street.	Pawn Shop The historical Woo Cheong Pawn Shop has been in operation since 1888. Constructed as a traditional tong lau shophouse—an architectural style widely embraced in Hong Kong from the late nineteenth to mid-twentieth centuries. Back in the day, pawn shops were a popular way for people to get loans. The pawnshop is now closed, but it has been restored to its former glory and is now a cult bar and restaurant.
 A vibrant and crowded street scene filled with colorful toys, balloons, and various merchandise. People are seen browsing through the displays, creating a lively atmosphere.	Tai Yuen Street (Toy Street) Tai Yuen Street, also known as Toy Street, is a lively and colorful street that is always bustling with activity. It is home to a wide variety of toy shops, selling everything from traditional Chinese toys to imported action figures and dolls. You can find rare and vintage toys here. It is a great place to spend an afternoon browsing the shops and finding unique gifts for friends and family.
